

Photo Policy

Photography Policy:

If you consent to have your photograph taken at our clinic, we assure you that no identifiable parts of your person will be displayed.

Clothing and Photography:

Should you agree to a photography session at our clinic, rest assured that only the intended area will be unclothed for the purpose of the photo. Under no circumstances will nude shots be taken.

Usage Agreement:

By consenting to photography within our clinic premises, you implicitly authorize the use of your image for advertising or educational purposes.

Opting Out of Advertising:

Should you decide against the use of your photograph for advertising purposes after consenting to its capture in our clinic, kindly submit a written request, and we will promptly remove it from circulation.
